About the Seminar:

Gordon will discuss the long standing problem of delay in arbitration proceedings, and the potential remedies for dealing with delay.

About the Speaker:

Gordon Smith is a Partner in Kennedys' Singapore office, and is responsible for Kennedys' Asian construction and engineering practice. He has been resident in Asia for 10 years. His principal area of practice is the conduct of complex international commercial arbitrations, principally related to oil & gas, energy, and infrastructure projects. He has conducted arbitrations in London, Hong Kong, Singapore, Tokyo, Kuala Lumpur, Bangkok and Jakarta under institutional rules ICC, SIAC, KLRCA, TAI, Bani and ad-hoc arbitrations (UNCITRAL). He has also conducted a major investor-State dispute under the auspices of ICSID.

Gordon is a Fellow of the Institution of Engineers, Australia, and an Australian Chartered Professional Engineer. He is also a Fellow and Chartered Arbitrator of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, United Kingdom, a Fellow of the Singapore Institute of Arbitrators, and is an arbitrator on the Singapore International Arbitration Centre Panel of Arbitrators and the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators Panel of Arbitrators.

About the Chairman:

Raymond Chan is a Senior Director of TSMP Law Corporation a firm of Advocates and Solicitors. He is the Immediate Past President of the Singapore Institute of Arbitrators and is a member of the Panel of Arbitrators of the Singapore International Arbitration Centre. He is active as an arbitrator and has been appointed by the International Court of Arbitration of the ICC and by the Singapore International Arbitration Centre as Arbitrator in several international arbitrations.

Raymond is listed in the 2009 Edition of the International Who's Who of Construction Lawyers as a Leading Construction Lawyer in Singapore and by Euromoney Legal Media Group in 2009 as a leading expert in commercial arbitration.
