SYMPOSIUM FORMAT

The SIARB Commercial Arbitration Symposium provides a distinctive and interactive forum for participants to discuss current issues and developments in the field of commercial arbitration.

There are no set speakers or speeches. Participants will be invited to submit topics for discussion in advance of the Symposium. The topics will be grouped into themes and allocated to one of the 3 working sessions, at which participants will be invited to introduce their topics.

Each topic is then presented for discussion, under the expert chairmanship of the Co-Chairs, all of whom are well known experienced practitioners in the field.

The objective is to generate a free-flowing discussion of current issues in commercial arbitration practice guided by the Co-Chairs.

There are limited places available for this Symposium so as to maintain the efficiency of the format and preserve the quality of the discussion. Participants are not required to have any particular level of practical experience in arbitration.

2 Public CPD Points

Session I: The Arbitration – Conduct, Practice and Procedure

Mr John Savage | Partner | King & Spalding

John Savage is a partner in King & Spalding's International Arbitration group, and leads the firm's arbitration practice in Asia. He has represented governments, corporations and high-net-worth individuals in over 120 international arbitrations around the world, including many corporate, construction, energy and investment treaty disputes. In addition to his work as counsel, Mr. Savage has been appointed chairman of the tribunal, sole arbitrator and co-arbitrator in around 20 international arbitrations. He is a director of the Singapore International Arbitration Centre and a member of its Executive Committee. He serves as the expert adviser to the Singapore Government Delegation to the UNCITRAL Working Group on Arbitration. Mr. Savage is the co-editor of "Fouchard, Gaillard, Goldman on International Commercial Arbitration" (Kluwer 1999), and the co-author of "International Arbitration and Mediation: A Practical Guide" (Kluwer 2010). He is the author of many other articles and publications and a frequent speaker on international arbitration. Most recently, Mr. Savage was ranked in the first tier of international arbitration practitioners by both Chambers Asia-Pacific 2012 and Chambers Singapore 2012. Who's Who Legal, Commercial Arbitration, 2012 recognised him as "one of the finest practitioners in Asia". He is admitted to practise law in England & Wales and in Paris, France.

Ms Lucy Reed | Partner | Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer

Lucy Reed, now based in Hong Kong, co-heads the Freshfields global international arbitration group. Lucy is chair of the ITA and a member of the LCIA Court, the new ICC Court Governing Body, and the ICC Commission. She is on, among others, the SIAC and HKIAC arbitrator panels. Lucy has served as arbitrator on the Eritrea-Ethiopia Claims Commission, co-director of the Claims Resolution Tribunal for Dormant Accounts in Switzerland, and US Agent to the Iran-US Claims Tribunal. Lucy is co-author of the Freshfields Guide to Arbitration Clauses in International Contracts and the Guide to ICSID Arbitration (Kluwer).

Session II: The Tribunal – Jurisdiction, Power and Duties

Mr Guy Spooner | Partner | Norton Rose

Guy Spooner is a dispute resolution lawyer based in Singapore. He is a partner and head of the Singapore dispute resolution practice. He specialises in all forms of litigation and arbitration, with particular experience in shipbuilding, energy, international trade, commodity, insurance, infrastructure, transportation and FPSO disputes.

Guy has considerable experience in arbitrations in Asia, having practised both in Hong Kong and Singapore for a number of years. He is now based in the Singapore office and is responsible for the arbitration practice in Asia which complements Norton Rose Group's non-contentious expertise and is part of the wider multi-jurisdictional practice. Guy is qualified in England, Hong Kong and Australia. He is a member of the board of Directors of Singapore International Arbitration Centre.
